Description
Just outside Koili village, two adjoining fields form one sizeable agricultural holding of 15,185 m². The ground slopes and the shape is irregular, and the land sits among other farmland and undeveloped plots. A dirt road runs along one border, giving the land direct road access, and water, electricity and telecommunications could be connected. Zoned agricultural, the land lends itself to farming or planting. Tsada and Stroumpi are a short drive away, and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway is within a drive. Together the two fields make a large, open piece of farmland on the edge of Koili.
