Description
Set among farmland and open parcels outside Pano Arodes, this agricultural field covers 13,272 m², a sizeable stretch of ground for farming or planting. It has direct road access along one of its borders, which makes it practical to work and to bring in equipment.

Kato Arodes and Peyia are both a short drive away, and the main roads of the area are a drive further. The setting is rural and shaped by the surrounding fields, away from dense development. A large, workable piece of agricultural land with its own road frontage in the Paphos countryside.
