For Sale : € 25,000

Description
On the outskirts of Tseri, surrounded by open parcels that are still waiting for their first homes, this field offers a calm residential setting with room for a home of your own one day. It lies just beyond the village, close enough to feel part of local life while keeping a sense of space around it.

The land fronts onto a road along one boundary, giving it direct road access. Its residential zoning allows homes of up to two floors, so the plain general use is clear: a place to live, shaped to your own plans.

Everyday errands are easy to manage. Latsia and Lakatameia are both a short drive away, and the Lefkosia South Orbital Motorway is within easy reach, linking this edge of Tseri with the wider Nicosia area.

The sale is for a 1/5 share of the field. What it offers is honest and simple: residential land on Tseri's open edge, with its own road frontage and a setting still taking shape.
