Description
Set among farmland and undeveloped parcels in the Pegeia area, this field of 8,696 m² is a sizeable piece of countryside, with the village of Coral Bay a short drive away. A long frontage runs along a footpath on one side.

Its zoning combines agricultural use with a protection zone, and the protected part limits what can be done there. The agricultural part lends itself to farming. Petrol stations and the village of Akoursos are also a short drive from the land. It is a large field within Pegeia's farming landscape.
