Description
In the countryside outside Astromeritis, this agricultural field sits among other farmed and undeveloped parcels. The village centre is a short drive away, as are neighbouring Potami and Pano Koutrafas. The land covers 4,014 m² and lies within an agricultural zone, so its natural use is farming or planting. It has no direct road access. With farmland on its borders, it is a simple parcel to cultivate or to keep as part of a wider agricultural holding. It is a sizeable field of open agricultural ground in the Astromeritis area.
