Description
In the countryside of Doros, in the Limassol district, this field covers 7,643 m² of agricultural land. It has frontage along a registered road on two of its borders, which gives it direct road access. The surrounding area is mostly farmland and undeveloped parcels, with a few scattered homes. The village centre and the neighbouring villages of Laneia and Monagri are a short drive away, and the Limassol - Paphos Motorway is within driving distance. About 2,600 m² of the field will be affected by the planned construction of the Limassol - Saitas road. The agricultural zoning suits farming and planting across a sizeable piece of land.
