Description
Small Development and High-Value Living

The Foundation of Your Future. This residential plot in Kato Deftera represents a sophisticated development opportunity in one of Nicosia’s most serene and rapidly evolving suburban enclaves. Falling within the H2 planning zone, the property offers a building density of 90% and a 50% coverage factor, providing the technical capacity for a high-value small development or a spacious custom-designed family residence. This density profile is ideal for a versatile project that balances privacy with investment potential. In March 2026, the Nicosia residential market is showing steady resilience with a 5% increase in transaction volume compared to last year, driven by savvy investors seeking long-term value in the capital's suburbs. Recent landmark tax reforms, including the full abolition of stamp duty on new property contracts and the removal of the Special Defence Contribution on rental income as of January 1, 2026, have significantly improved net yields for investors. Furthermore, the 2026 market is characterized by a strong shift toward high-quality suburban living, supported by the government's 6th Edition of the Housing Revitalization Scheme, which launched on March 2, 2026, offering combined grants of up to 100,000 euro for eligible primary residences. The plot’s superior technical specifications and its placement within a tranquil residential district ensure a secure and appreciating investment, a standard of smart investment we have guided for 3 decades of experience.
