Description

Discover Potential in Kalo Chorio!

Imagine owning a piece of the serene Limassol countryside with this expansive agricultural field in Kalo Chorio village. Located just 2 kilometers east of the village center, this unique property offers a true escape into a beautiful natural environment.

With its irregular shape and gently sloping land surface, this field presents intriguing possibilities. A significant advantage is its extensive frontage of approximately 450 meters onto a public registered road along both its southern and western boundaries, ensuring excellent accessibility.

While the property is currently subject to compulsory acquisition, its substantial size and direct road access make it a notable opportunity for those seeking a tranquil rural setting with future potential.
