Description

High-Yield Development and Strategic Acquisition

The Foundation of Your Future. These under-division residential plots in the strategically positioned Geri area represent a premier opportunity for a high-impact development in one of Nicosia's most active suburban expansion zones. Falling within the Ka7 planning zone, the property offers a significantly higher building density of 80% and a 45% coverage factor, making it an ideal candidate for a luxury multi-unit residential project or a series of high-specification detached villas. In March 2026, the local market is exceptionally robust following the landmark January 1st tax reform, which fully abolished stamp duty on all new property contracts and removed the Special Defence Contribution on rental income, drastically improving the net acquisition value and yield potential for investors. Furthermore, the 2026 market is bolstered by the 6th Edition of the Housing Scheme for the Revitalization of Specific Areas, which launched on March 2, 2026, providing substantial financial incentives for primary residence construction in the Nicosia district. The plots' position in an area characterized by modern residential growth ensures a secure and appreciating asset, a standard of quality we have prioritized for 3 decades of experience.

Description Under division residential plots in Geri. The plots fall within a residential planning zone with 80% building density and 45% coverage, allowing for a maximum of 2 floors and a height of 10 meters. This property is part of a modern division project, ensuring that all necessary infrastructure, including registered road access and utility connections, will be provided to the boundary. The topography and high density coefficient offer maximum flexibility for developers looking to create high-value living spaces or for families seeking a substantial custom-built home.
