Description

Unlocking New Horizons in Real Estate Excellence starts with securing assets that offer the perfect blend of versatility and strategic positioning. This residential plot in Agia Varvara is a prime example of a property that balances the potential for a small development with high-value living. Its location within a growing residential pocket makes it a standout choice for those looking to maximize yield while providing a superior quality of life for future residents.

Balance between Small Development and High-Value Living

The property is situated within the Kα6 residential zone, a classification that offers a generous 90% building density and a 50% coverage factor. These parameters are ideal for developers or individuals seeking to create a high-yield project, such as a small complex of modern townhouses or a pair of spacious semi-detached homes. With the permission to build up to 2 floors and a maximum height of 10m, you can maximize the internal living space while maintaining a sophisticated architectural profile. Choosing a plot with these specifications ensures your investment remains a secure and solid asset for over 3 decades of experience.
