Description

Family Living and Long-term Investment

This residential asset in the prestigious STELMEK area of Lakatamia represents a premier opportunity for high-quality family living in one of Nicosia's most sought-after and organized suburban enclaves. Falling within the residential planning zone with an 80% building density and a 45% coverage factor, the property is perfectly suited for the development of one or two family homes that prioritize privacy, garden space, and architectural distinction. In March 2026, the local real estate market has been fundamentally revitalized by the landmark January 1st tax reform, which fully abolished stamp duty on all new property contracts and removed the Special Defence Contribution on rental income, drastically improving the net position for long-term investors. Furthermore, the 2026 market is bolstered by the latest energy-efficiency grants for new primary residences launched on March 2, 2026, offering significant financial incentives for homeowners incorporating sustainable smart-technologies. The established residential zoning and the elite status of the STELMEK district ensure a secure and appreciating asset, a standard of smart investment we have guided for 3 decades of experience.

Description Residential corner plot for sale in the STELMEK area, Lakatamia, Nicosia. This property offers a south-western orientation and a clear canvas for a high-spec development, suitable for the construction of one or two independent family houses. The plot falls within a Residential Planning Zone with a building density coefficient of 80% and a coverage coefficient of 45%, allowing for a maximum of 2 floors. This residential land benefits from its position in an area that serves as a benchmark for modern suburban living, combining a quiet residential atmosphere with rapid accessibility to the capital's central business district and private health centers. The 80% building factor is a strategic advantage for those seeking to build large family homes with ample outdoor areas, capitalizing on the surging demand for premium residential properties in 2026.
