Description

Discover Your Rural Escape in Gerasa

Imagine a sprawling 6,355 m² agricultural field in the serene community of Gerasa, a place where the air is fresh and the pace of life slows. This isn't just land; it's a blank canvas for your dreams, offering a rare opportunity to connect with nature and cultivate your vision.

Nestled just south of the charming village center, this expansive plot promises tranquility, yet remains accessible. Picture designing a rural retreat, a sustainable farm, or simply a peaceful sanctuary (subject to planning permissions, of course, with a building density of 10%). While currently a secluded haven, lying approximately 70 meters from the nearest road and bordering government land, its inclined surface and irregular shape offer unique character and potential for creative landscaping. If you dream of a life intertwined with the land, this significant plot in Gerasa could be the beginning of your most fulfilling chapter.
