Description

High-Yield Development and Strategic Acquisition

This 637 sqm residential plot in Kaimakli represents one of the most commercially viable "shovel-ready" opportunities in Nicosia's current development landscape. Falling within the Kα3 planning zone with a 140% building density and 50% coverage factor, the site is perfectly optimized for a high-density, four-storey apartment complex. Its prime location "Konta Sto Chorio"—the traditional heart of Kaimakli—coupled with its close 800-meter proximity to Frederick University, makes it a premier candidate for a student housing project or a modern "build-to-rent" development. In March 2026, Nicosia's apartment market is seeing robust 3-5% price momentum, particularly in academic corridors where rental occupancy remains at near-maximum capacity. The added value of this property is its "clean" delivery; with no VAT applicable and the owner committed to demolishing the existing structure at their own expense under an active permit, a developer can transition immediately from acquisition to construction, a level of efficiency we have championed for 3 decades of experience.
