Description

For Sale Agricultural Plot In Mitsero, Nicosia
Strategic Land Investment in Mitsero

Experience an exceptional and highly practical investment opportunity with this agricultural field, strategically located in the serene and historic countryside of Mitsero, Nicosia. This property represents a top-tier land proposal, offering a substantial asset of 2,676 square meters for agricultural development, cultivation, or long-term strategic holding. Designed for individuals or investors seeking to purchase land with high rural potential, the property is situated entirely within a dedicated agricultural zone. Its peaceful position ensures a completely natural environment away from urban development, making it an excellent and secure choice for land banking or farming initiatives within the Nicosia district.

Development Potential & High-Value Features

The property features a large canvas spanning an area of 2,676 square meters, falling 100% within the Γ3 Agricultural Planning Zone. The land offers a building density of 10% and a coverage factor of 10%, allowing for the construction of a 2-storey structure with a maximum height of 8.3 meters, subject to relevant planning and access permissions. The field is currently landlocked, presenting an ideal entry-level value for investors looking to secure a sizeable plot at a competitive price point, with long-term prospects for right-of-way acquisition or future agricultural exploitation in a traditional farming region.
