For Sale Residential Plot In Agios Dometios, Nicosia

Strategic Development Investment in Agios Dometios

Unlock an exceptional, high-potential development opportunity with this premium residential plot, strategically located in the highly demanded, established, and vibrant urban heart of Agios Dometios, Nicosia. This property represents a top-tier investment proposal, offering a solid, high-value asset perfectly suited for real estate developers, contractors, or individuals seeking to build a flagship multi-story apartment building or a magnificent, custom-designed grand family residency. Positioned within a peaceful yet highly central urban neighborhood, the plot enjoys seamless connectivity to primary corporate corridors, medical facilities, and major academic universities. Its square configuration, pristine structural attributes, and excellent location within Nicosia's inner ring guarantee immediate market absorption and long-term capital appreciation.

Rigorous Development Specifications & Prime Zoning Benefits

Falling 100 percent within the highly coveted Residential Zone Ka4, this flat building plot spans a generous total surface area of 511 square meters. The land is structurally governed by excellent urban parameters, optimized to maximize internal built square footage and unlock premium architectural potential. Featuring a robust Building Density of 120 percent, developers can construct a substantial total indoor area of up to approximately 613 square meters of internal covered space.

Supported by a generous Coverage Factor of 50 percent, a maximum allowable building height of 13.5 meters, and a maximum allowance of 3 floors, this asset provides the ultimate blueprint for a highly profitable, modern boutique apartment complex featuring premium 1, 2, or 3-bedroom residential units.

Secure Legal Infrastructure & Immediate Connectivity

This premium plot features a fully cleared, smooth, and construction-ready surface, bounded by a registered public asphalted road network with an extensive, highly accessible road frontage. Equipped with immediate access to all essential public utility networks—including high-capacity electricity grids, central municipal water supplies, and public telecommunications systems—the asset ensures minimal preparation costs. The land possesses an unencumbered, clean title deed ready for an immediate, secure ownership transfer.
