Description

For Sale 3 Bedroom Semi-Detached House in Geri, Nicosia

Discover comfortable contemporary family living with this attractive 3-bedroom semi-detached house for sale in Geri, Nicosia. Situated in a well-connected residential area, this property combines practical family spaces, energy-saving features and pleasant outdoor areas, making it an excellent choice for families, couples or buyers searching for a quality home with long-term value in the Nicosia real estate market.

The residence features three comfortable bedrooms and well-designed living spaces that create a welcoming environment for everyday family life. Its semi-detached configuration provides an appealing balance between privacy, functionality and efficient use of space, while the surrounding residential setting contributes to a peaceful lifestyle.

An important advantage of the property is the installation of photovoltaic panels, helping reduce dependence on conventional electricity and contributing towards lower household energy costs. The residence also benefits from a solar water heater, further enhancing its energy-conscious character and providing an efficient solution for everyday hot-water requirements.

Outdoor living is another attractive element of this Geri house. The property benefits from a private garden, creating a pleasant setting where future owners can relax, entertain friends, enjoy family gatherings or design their own landscaped outdoor area.

Covered parking is also provided, offering additional convenience and protection for a vehicle.

The location further strengthens the property's appeal. Geri offers convenient connections towards the University of Cyprus, Nicosia General Hospital and the wider Nicosia road network; properties in Geri are commonly promoted for their accessibility to these important areas.
