Description
Residential Corner Plot for Sale in Kiti, Larnaca
G&P Lazarou Estate Agents presents this attractive residential corner plot for sale in Kiti, Larnaca, offering an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a well-positioned property for residential development. With a plot area of 293 sq.m., the property combines a practical size with favourable residential planning parameters and a registered road, making it an interesting option for private buyers, developers or investors.
The property falls within Residential Planning Zone H2, with a 90% building density and 50% coverage. Based on the stated planning coefficients, the plot provides a potential building density of approximately 263.7 sq.m., subject to the applicable planning and building regulations and any required approvals. The 50% coverage coefficient provides potential ground-floor coverage of approximately 146.5 sq.m.
As a corner plot, the property offers an appealing configuration for residential design and development, while its registered road provides established road access. The combination of residential zoning, favourable development coefficients and a corner position makes this plot a noteworthy opportunity for those considering the construction of a private residence or another permitted residential development.
