Description

Two-storey detached house with basement and attic for sale – Nicosia District

For sale, a spacious two-storey detached house set on a generous 1,500 sq.m. plot in a peaceful location within the Nicosia District, enjoying attractive mountain views.

Built in 2000, the residence offers 213 sq.m. of internal areas, providing comfortable and functional living spaces. The ground floor comprises three spacious bedrooms, with the master bedroom benefiting from a private shower and two WCs. The property also features a separate fitted kitchen, marble flooring, a fireplace and central heating.

The first floor offers 235 sq.m. of covered areas, with a building permit in place. The property also includes a storage room, covered veranda, basement and attic.

An important advantage of the property is the separate entrance to the upper floor, providing the potential for independent use according to the requirements of the new owner and subject to any necessary approvals.

Externally, the residence benefits from a large garden and an electric garage gate, while its mountain views further enhance its residential appeal. Additional features include a solar water-heating system, electrical appliances, air conditioning, a pressurised water system, security door, alarm system, as well as internet and telephone connections.

The substantial plot, generous accommodation and separate access to the upper floor make this property a suitable option for a large family or buyers looking for a residence offering flexibility in the layout and use of its spaces.
