At 16,890 m², the field is large and flat, with an irregular outline, and it falls within the town's residential zone. Picture open, level ground at the heart of a small coastal town, with the daily rhythm of Polis carrying on just beyond its edges and the shore a short way off. The heritage site of Pyrgos tis Rigainas is a drive away, and Paphos International Airport is about 35 km off.

The land has no direct road access. It also lies within an ancient monuments area.
