For Sale : € 95,000

Description
Village life in the Paphos hills sets the tone for this residential field for sale in Ineia, Cyprus. It offers 4014 m² of gently inclined land amid authentic village surroundings, where the pace slows and the landscape takes centre stage.

Zoned for residential use, the land gives you room to picture a home with space around it. The irregular shape and sloping surface give it a natural, unpretentious character that follows the lie of the hills. Everyday needs are a short drive away: the village centre, cafés and restaurants, supermarkets, petrol stations and green spaces. The neighbouring villages of Drouseia, Fasli and Androlikou are close by too.

When the coast calls, the beaches are a drive away, including Toxeftra, one of the best-loved stretches of shoreline in the area. Paphos International Airport is about 25 km away.

A generous piece of residential land in Ineia, rooted in a setting with a strong local identity and the authentic side of Cyprus all around.
