For Sale : € 295,000

Description
The sea feels close at hand from this sizeable field in Pissouri, with the local beach a short drive away and parks and green spaces within walking distance. Here the Mediterranean coast and village life of the Limassol district sit side by side, and the land offers a generous share of both.

Covering 14,716 m², the field has a regular shape and a sloping surface. It lies in a touristic zone, so its general use points to tourism, and its size gives room to think about plans of that kind. It is reached by a road that is not registered.

Day to day, the village centre is a short drive from the land, and the motorway between Limassol and Paphos is close by too. Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away, which keeps travel to and from the coast simple.

A large, regular piece of touristic land, with the beach and the village of Pissouri close by.
