Description
Pissouri is one of the most relaxed corners of the Limassol coastline. Its sandy bay, its hillside village and its sea air give it a holiday atmosphere all year round. This generous field of 8696 m² sits within that setting, zoned for touristic use, with restaurants, cafés and green spaces within walking distance.

The land has a regular shape and a sloping surface. It has great access to the sea, and the beaches are a short drive away. Supermarkets, shops and the village centre are close by too. The Limassol–Paphos motorway is easily reached, so the wider island opens up quickly. Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away.

Touristic land in Pissouri suits tourist use, all in a part of Cyprus where outdoor living and the climate shape everyday life. A versatile canvas on a well-loved stretch of coast, with the sea and the village close at hand.
