For Sale : € 200,000

Description
Quiet countryside and beautiful natural surroundings set the mood for this residential field in Pissouri, a short way from the village centre. Here the pace slows, and the landscape becomes part of everyday life.

The land covers 9,031 m², with an almost regular shape and an even surface. It sits on residential land, so there is room for a home, and its level ground lets you picture a house settled calmly into its setting. Restaurants, cafés and shops lie a short drive away in the area, and Paphos International Airport is about 15 km off.

The land has no direct road access.

It is a peaceful piece of Pissouri, with nature close at hand and village life nearby, waiting for the home you picture there.
