Description
Distant sea views and an open outlook over the surrounding area set the mood for this touristic field in Pissouri, in the Limassol district. The village centre is a short drive away, and so are the beaches of this stretch of coast, with Paphos International Airport about 20 km off.

The land covers 5,859 m² of sloping ground with an irregular shape. Its touristic zoning points to tourist use, so you can picture a project shaped around that view towards the sea, with village cafés, shops and the coast all within easy reach of a short drive.

The land has no direct road access.

In a setting where the island feels at its most relaxed, this is a sizeable piece of Pissouri where the outlook does much of the talking, and where the sea stays in view on the horizon.
