For Sale : € 80,000

Description
Sea views and coastal breezes set the tone for this touristic field in Agios Theodoros, a village on the Larnaca coastline where life moves at a gentler pace. The land lies within a relaxed setting, with restaurants, cafés and green spaces a short drive away and the village of Alaminos close by.

The field covers 8,696 m² on level ground and is enclosed, which gives it a tidy, well-defined feel. Its zone allows tourist and residential use, including homes, holiday house complexes and hotels, so the land offers real scope within its category.

Everyday convenience is straightforward. Supermarkets, shops and the beaches are a drive away, and the Larnaca–Limassol motorway links you easily to both cities. Larnaca International Airport is about 20 km away. Governor's Beach and the ancient Choirokoitia Neolithic Settlement are both within reach for days out.

This sale is for a one-quarter share of the field. Above all, it is the open sea views from this corner of Agios Theodoros that make the land so easy to picture.
