For Sale : € 45,000

Description
Village life sets the tone in Pigenia, a community in the Nicosia district where the village centre, with its cafés and restaurants, is only a short drive away. On its edge lies a sizeable field of 4,513 m² with room for a home in this authentic village setting.

Most of the land sits in a residential zone, while a small part is agricultural. The ground slopes and the plot has an irregular outline, so a future home can be planned around the shape of the land. A road gives access to the field.

Everyday errands stay simple, with supermarkets and shops a short drive away, and the neighbouring village of Kato Pyrgos is close as well. For a slower afternoon, Gialia Monastery lies a drive away and adds a touch of heritage to the area.

A generous piece of Pigenia land, with village life close by and room to create a home of your own.
