Description
Pissouri is one of the most loved corners of the Limassol coast, and this generous field sits within its tourist area, a short drive from the beaches and a landscape-led setting away from dense urban development. Sea air, open countryside and the easy rhythm of village life all come together here.

The land is square in shape with an even surface, simple to read and easy to picture in use. Its touristic zoning points towards hospitality and leisure, set in a part of Cyprus that already draws visitors for its coastline and character.

Everyday needs are close at hand. Restaurants, cafés, supermarkets and the Pissouri village centre are all a short drive away, as are parks, petrol stations and a medical centre or pharmacy. The neighbouring village of Avdimou is close by, and Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away.

With 6857 m² in a tourist area between the beach and the hills, this is land with a long horizon in one of the island's most relaxed coastal communities.
