Description
Set in an open countryside setting, this field in Mosfiloti covers 13,044 m² of Larnaca district land, away from dense urban development. The ground has an irregular shape and a sloping surface, and the area around it is a short drive from the neighbouring villages of Pyrga and Psevdas.

The field has no direct road access, and it lies within a protection zone. What it offers is a generous, uncomplicated piece of the Cypriot countryside, held in its natural sloping form.
