Description
In the village of Pigenia, in Nicosia District, this sizeable field lies a short drive from the village centre, with its cafés and everyday shops close at hand. It is a setting where village life is near, yet the land keeps a sense of space all its own.

Most of the land is in a residential zone, offering room for a home, while a small part is agricultural. At 4,666 m², there is ample ground to consider how a house might sit across it. The land slopes and has an irregular outline, details worth weighing when picturing how a home could take shape here. The land has no direct road access.

Beyond Pigenia, the village of Kato Pyrgos is also a short drive away, and the heritage site of Gialia Monastery lies within a drive for an unhurried afternoon out.

A generous stretch of residential land in Pigenia, close to the heart of the village, with room to imagine a home of your own.
