Description
Parks and green spaces sit right beside this three-bedroom apartment in Zakaki, a residential quarter of Limassol where schools, supermarkets and shops are all within walking distance and the city centre is easy to reach.

The flat takes up the whole first floor of a four-storey building. Its heart is an open-plan living and dining room, the natural place for long family meals and relaxed evenings, with a separate kitchen close at hand. Three bedrooms give everyone their own space, and two bathrooms, one of them a guest toilet, keep busy mornings running smoothly. Covered verandas offer a sheltered spot outdoors for a morning coffee or a quiet moment at the end of the day.

Everyday life here can happen on foot: the school run, the weekly shop and an afternoon stroll in the green spaces next door. Restaurants, cafés and a medical centre are a short drive away when you need them.

A whole floor of family living, with greenery on the doorstep and the heart of Limassol within easy reach.
