Space and a slower pace come together in this field for sale...

For Sale : € 75,000

Description
Space and a slower pace come together in this field for sale in Pissouri, one of the best-loved villages in the Limassol district. Covering 7358 m² of sloping, irregular ground, it offers a generous piece of open land surrounded by quieter countryside and authentic Cypriot village life.

The village centre is only a short drive away, with its restaurants and cafés, supermarkets, schools and everyday services. Parks and green spaces are close by, and the motorway between Limassol and Paphos is also a short drive away. Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away, and the neighbouring villages of Alectora and Platanisteia are within easy reach for those who enjoy exploring the countryside.

The land is zoned residential, but its ground does carry some building constraints worth understanding. It has no direct road access of its own, though the nearest road lies only a short distance away.

What stays with you is the setting: a sizeable stretch of Pissouri land, rooted in a place with a strong local identity and the relaxed rhythm of village life.
