For Sale : € 75,000

Description
Close to the heart of Eledio, in the Paphos countryside, this residential field spreads across 7,024 m² of open, sloping land. Most of the land around it is still undeveloped, which gives the setting an open, uncluttered feel within reach of village life.

The residential zoning gives room for a home, and the irregular shape and gentle fall of the ground suit a design shaped around the lie of the land. The land has no direct road access.

Beyond Eledio, the neighbouring villages of Amargeti and Axylou are a short drive away, and so are restaurants and cafés for an evening out. It is a simple, honest piece of village land: a large plot near the centre of a Paphos village, with space to imagine a home of your own.
