Description
In the countryside of Stroumpi village in Paphos District, this field of 5,315 m² lies a short drive from the village centre, with neighbouring Theletra also close by. The land has an irregular outline, and the ground slopes across it. About half of the field is zoned agricultural, for farming or planting, and about half lies in a residential zone. The field has no direct road access. It is a sizeable piece of Stroumpi land that combines agricultural and residential zoning on a single field.
