Description
Six adjoining fields in Koilani, Limassol, come together here as one sizeable holding of 28,432 m², sold as a single unit. The land has an irregular shape and a sloping surface. A registered road runs between the fields and gives them a long frontage, though the road is in poor repair on site. Part of the land lies in an agricultural zone, suited to farming, and part falls within a protection zone.

The village centre and neighbouring Vouni are a short drive away, and main roads are within a drive. It is a large, sloping stretch of land in the Koilani countryside.
