Tree-lined surroundings and the charm of a picturesque villa...

For Sale : € 64,000

Description
Tree-lined surroundings and the charm of a picturesque village set the scene for this field in Agros, in the Limassol District. Parks and green spaces lie within walking distance, while nature trails, waterfalls and a scattering of picturesque villages are only a short distance away.

Zoned for industrial use, the land offers a sizeable 3,566 m² for a business base set among authentic village surroundings. It has direct access from a public road, a practical asset for the daily rhythm of work. The land is irregular in shape and sloping, so any design will need to work with its contours.

The neighbouring villages of Agridia and Polystypos are a short drive away, keeping the wider community close at hand. A working day here can begin among the trees and end with a stroll through the green spaces nearby, with the character of this mountain-region village never far from view.

An industrial field framed by trees in Agros, waiting for a business that wants to put down roots in authentic Cypriot village life.
