Description
Covering 22409 m², this agricultural field in Theletra sits in an open countryside setting in the Paphos district. The ground is relatively flat with a slight slope, and its irregular shape follows the lie of the surrounding land. As agricultural land, it suits farming and planting.

The village centre, neighbouring Giolou and local petrol stations are a short drive away, and the Limassol - Paphos Motorway is within a drive. The field is not currently reached by an asphalt road. It is a versatile piece of land on gently sloping ground in the Theletra countryside.
