For Sale : € 30,000

Description
Walk out from this land and you are soon among the pines of the Troodos National Forest Park. This field for sale in Kardamas sits on the gently climbing edge of Pelendri, a mountain village with real character and a slower pace of life, only a short way from the village centre.

The land is generous, with a sloping, irregular shape that follows the natural lie of the hillside. It has direct road access, so reaching it is simple. Supermarkets, cafés, restaurants, schools and medical centres are all a short drive away. The neighbouring villages of Amiantos, Karvounas and Kakopetria are close by too, as are the main roads for longer trips across the island.

This is the authentic side of Cyprus, where village life and the forest sit side by side. It offers a landscape-led setting far from dense urban development, with the familiar comforts of Pelendri still close at hand. This sale is for a two-ninths share of the land.

Above all, it is a foothold in the hills, with one of the island's best-loved forests almost on the doorstep.
