Description
Set in the farming countryside of Theletra in the Paphos district, this agricultural field covers a generous 24,081 m² of open land. Its regular shape and even, terraced ground make it straightforward to work, whether for planting, cultivation or adding to an existing farm holding. The field has road access. The centre of Theletra, neighbouring Stroumpi and petrol stations are all a short drive away, with main roads and the Limassol–Paphos motorway within easy reach by car. A sizeable, well-proportioned parcel of level farmland with plenty of room to plant.
