Description
A sizeable field of 12,077 m² of agricultural land in Pano Arodes, in the Paphos district, suited to farming and planting. The ground slopes and the shape is irregular, giving an open plot in a landscape-led setting away from dense urban development.

The field has direct road access. The village centre, petrol stations and the neighbouring villages of Kato Arodes and Peyia are all a short drive away. Main roads are a drive away, and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway lies in the wider region.

A versatile piece of agricultural land with direct road access, set in open Cypriot countryside.
