For Sale : € 26,000

Description
Restaurants, cafés, shops and schools all lie within walking distance of this residential field in Pissouri, a much-loved Limassol village with a strong local identity. Everyday life can happen on foot here, with village squares and familiar faces close by rather than a car journey away.

The land has an irregular shape and a sloping surface, a contour that gives a future home on residential land some character. It has direct road access, so reaching the land is simple from day one. Beyond the village, petrol stations, parks and the neighbouring communities of Alectora and Platanisteia are a short drive away. The Limassol–Paphos Motorway is also within easy reach, and Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away.

For anyone looking at a Pissouri property listing in the field category, this offers an uncomplicated starting point within authentic Cypriot village life, away from dense urban development. This sale is for a two-fifths share of the land.

A residential setting where the shops, schools and cafés of Pissouri are only a stroll from home.
