Vines growing on fertile soil, and village cafés within walk...

For Sale : € 29,000

Description
Vines growing on fertile soil, and village cafés within walking distance: this residential field in Kathikas has an easy, rooted appeal. It sits in a village with a strong local identity, within reach of the busy coast around Coral Bay. Restaurants, shops and the historic Panagia Evangelistria Church are all within walking distance.

The land is generous and regular in shape, with a gentle slope across its surface and road access. Vineyards already grow here, and the soil is fertile enough to cultivate. Its residential zoning points to a home in the setting, among the vines.

Kathikas offers authentic Cypriot village life. Peyia and Theletra are a short drive away, and the beaches, main roads and medical centres are a drive away. Paphos International Airport is about 20 km away, so the wider island stays within comfortable reach.

This sale is for a one-quarter share of the field. It offers a share of living vineyard land in the heart of Kathikas, a short walk from village life.
