Description
Outside the village of Galataria in the Paphos district, 29,767 m² of agricultural land offers a large area for farming or planting. The field has a regular shape and a sloping surface, and access is by a dirt road. The village centre is a short drive away, as are Koilineia and Statos-Agios Fotios, and the motorway lies in the wider region.

Most of the land is zoned for agriculture. A small part falls within a protection zone. It is a sizeable field for cultivation in rural Paphos.
