Description
Set on rising, sloping ground in the countryside of Farmakas, this agricultural field covers a generous 26,552 m² of open land in the Nicosia district. Its irregular shape follows the natural lie of the hillside, and it is reached by a rural road.

Zoned for agricultural use, the land lends itself to farming or planting. The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Lazanias and Kampi, and a main road is within driving distance.

A sizeable and versatile piece of agricultural land on the slopes of Farmakas.
