Description
Two adjoining fields in Simou, Paphos, come together as a single plot, a short drive from the village centre. The land has direct road access along one boundary. The neighbouring villages of Lasa and Drymou are also a short drive away, and main roads are within a drive.

The ground slopes, and the plot has an irregular shape. Part of the land lies in an agricultural zone, suited to farming or planting. Another part falls within a protection zone. Altogether, the plot covers 6,690 m² of rural land in the Simou countryside.
