For Sale : € 28,000

Description
Authentic Cypriot village life sets the scene for this residential field in Akoursos, close to the heart of the community in the Paphos countryside. Covering 967 m² with a smooth surface, it offers a generous, uncomplicated space for a family home on land zoned for residential use.

Direct road access keeps everyday comings and goings simple. Peyia is a short drive away, and supermarkets, schools, restaurants and cafés, medical centres and pharmacies are all within easy reach. Parks and green spaces nearby make for relaxed weekend afternoons, while main roads and motorway junctions are a drive away when the rest of the district calls.

The area has character too. The Adonis Baths, a well-known heritage site, lie a short drive from the village and offer a taste of the landscape and local legend that give this corner of Paphos its appeal.

Picture a home of your own here, steps from village life yet well connected to everything around it, with the authentic side of Cyprus right on your doorstep.
