For Sale : € 16,000

Description
Koilani's village centre, with its restaurants and cafés, lies within walking distance of this generous parcel of sloping land, set on gently rising ground at the edge of a village with a strong local identity. Wine is part of the character here, with a well-known local winery close by, and guesthouses dotted around the village show how much visitors enjoy its authentic Cypriot atmosphere.

The land covers 2007 m² of residential ground, irregular in shape and sloping. Open fields make up much of the surroundings, giving it a landscape-led feel away from dense development. It has no direct road access of its own, which is worth knowing from the outset.

Everyday needs are within easy reach. Schools, supermarkets, a pharmacy, parks and sports venues are a short drive away, as is the neighbouring village of Pera Pedi, while the Limassol to Paphos motorway connects you to the wider region.

For anyone drawn to traditional village charm, this is a chance to own a piece of Koilani, within walking distance of village life and wrapped in the open countryside that gives this corner of Limassol its appeal.
