Description
Set in the open countryside of Silikou, this agricultural field in the Limassol district covers a generous 12,041 m² of sloping ground. Its irregular shape follows the natural lie of the land, and it offers a versatile piece of farmland for planting or cultivation.

The village centre is a short drive away, as are the neighbouring villages of Lofou and Kilani. Petrol stations are close by, main roads are within a drive, and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway lies in the wider region. The field has no direct road access. It is a sizeable stretch of agricultural land in a landscape-led setting, away from dense development.
