Description
Authentic Cypriot village life sets the tone for this residential field for sale in Askas, Cyprus. It sits in a quiet residential area of the village, where a slower pace and a close-knit community still shape everyday life.

The land covers a generous 1125 m² and is zoned for residential use, offering space to plan a home of your own. Its sloping, irregular shape gives the site a natural, landscape-led character, and it has direct road access, which keeps the practical side simple.

Daily needs are well covered. Schools, medical centres, pharmacies, restaurants and cafés are all a short drive away, as is the neighbouring village of Palaichori Oreinis. A supermarket, public service offices and the main roads are within easy driving distance, so the calm of the village never means being cut off.

For anyone drawn to quieter surroundings and an authentic alternative to city or resort living, Askas offers a rewarding setting. Here is a plot of residential land in a peaceful village, ready for a home that feels rooted in its place.
