Description
Set among the farmland outside Pachna village, this agricultural field offers 5,770 m² of open countryside in the Limassol district. The ground slopes gently and the shape is irregular, giving workable land for farming or planting in line with its agricultural use. The neighbouring villages of Kissousa and Malia are a short drive away, and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway is within a drive along the main roads. The field does not have direct registered road access. It is a versatile piece of agricultural land in the open rural landscape around Pachna.
