Description
A short drive from the village centre, this agricultural field in Giolou covers 8,938 m² of farmland in an open countryside setting. The ground is uneven and the shape irregular, and the land is reached by a dirt track. The neighbouring villages of Drymou and Simou are also a short drive away. Petrol stations and main roads are within a drive, and the Limassol–Paphos Motorway lies in the wider region. Zoned for agriculture, this is a versatile piece of land for farming or planting in the Giolou countryside.
